

Gain valuable leadership skills in a community with other students who share the same common interests as YOU!

FYE-GOLD Program
Office of Residence Life—Marye House
University of Mary Washington
1301 College Avenue
Fredericksburg, VA 22401

Phone: (540) 654-1058
Fax: (540) 654-1527
Website: www.umw.edu/residencelife/prospectivestudents

Office of Residence Life

FYE-GOLD

First-Year Experience Generating Opportunities for Leadership Development

Office of Residence Life

(540) 654-1058

What is FYE-GOLD?

- An opportunity for students to develop their leadership skills and abilities.
- Building blocks for becoming a leader and role model.
- Mentoring by students who have already successfully completed the program.
- Emphasis on community service and building a strong sense of community.
- Development of more lasting relationships due to living in a small residential community.
- Exposure to leadership activities which will promote further success in college.

Who Can Participate & How Do I Apply?

*FYE is only open to incoming freshmen students who have a sincere desire to be successful leaders

*To show your interest in participating in the program—check the appropriate box on the Housing and Dining Services Contract

*Then attach your answers to the following essay and suggested essay:

(Required Essay)* Create the leadership program of your dreams. What subject(s) will you touch upon? What activities will you do? Explain your reasoning behind all your choices.

(Optional additional essay):* Tell us about your favorite activity to do and why it is important to you. Don't be afraid to be creative by drawing, singing, painting, your favorite activity.

Custis Hall is home to the First Year Experience program. It houses 40 first-year men and women on three floors. It is conveniently located in the center of campus. Custis has suite bathrooms and is entirely non-smoking.

