

Tongue Twisters Exercise

Objectives:

- To practice accurate articulation and pronunciation.
- To learn to read aloud conversationally.

Instructions:

Practice reading aloud selected sentences from the list below. Try to pronounce all words accurately and to communicate the sentence in a conversational, meaningful manner.

Tongue Twisters:

1. Three gray geese in the green grass grazing; gray were the geese and green was the grazing.
2. The sun shines on the shop signs. (Repeat three times.)
3. The sixth sheik's sixth sheep's sick.
4. Fanny Finch fried five floundering fish for Francis Fowlar's father.
5. A big black bug bit a big black bear and made the big black bear bleed blood.
6. She stood at the door of Burgess's fish-sauce shop welcoming him in.
7. She stood at the door on the balcony, inexplicable mimicking him hiccuping, amicably welcoming him in.
8. Truly rural. (Repeat three times.)
9. He had sixty-six sick chicks.
10. Those are very strange strategic statistics.
11. Tie twine to three tree twigs.
12. Three new blue beans in a new-blown bean blower.
13. Six long slim slick slender saplings slid slightly southward.
14. Preshrunk shirts seldom shrink.
15. A bloke's back brake block broke.
16. Shy Sarah saw six Swiss wrist watches.
17. Does this shop stock short socks with spots?
18. Sheep shouldn't sleep in a shack, sheep should sleep in a shed.
19. Six sick soldiers sighted seven slowly sinking ships.
20. Washington's washwoman washed Washington's wash while Washington watched Wilson.
21. Blushing Barbara booted boisterously while blind Bobby brought brilliant birds bright barbs.