UNIVERSITY OF MARY WASHINGTON

THEA 491, 492: Individual Study Proposal

The Individual Study in the Department of Theatre & Dance is intended to provide the opportunity for a student to explore areas of interest beyond those covered in the standard course offerings. Individual studies are conducted under the direction of a member of the faculty and may earn one, two, or three academic credits.

This form, along with the green Individual Study form from the Registrar, must be approved and signed by the faculty member who will supervise your individual study. Once signed, both forms must be taken to the Chair for approval.

You must complete this paperwork in order to register for THEA 491 or 492, Individual Study.
