

Teacher Program Admission & Licensure Testing

Program Admission – Praxis I and Qualifying Substitutes

Students must pass the Praxis I test or a qualifying substitute in order to be formally admitted to education pathways leading to initial licensure at the University of Mary Washington. Students must pass the test to be admitted to the program. There are several ways in which a student may satisfy the Praxis I requirement.

Praxis I

Students may pass Praxis I by earning a score at or above on each of the following subtests

Reading 178

Writing 176

Math 178

Alternatively, a minimum score on each test is not required as long as the composite score of 532 is achieved.

SAT as a Substitute Test for Praxis I

- SAT taken Prior to April 1, 1995 – a score of 1000 with at least 450 on the verbal and 510 on the mathematics tests
- SAT taken After April 1, 1995 – a score of 1100 with at least 530 on the verbal and 530 on the mathematics tests as a substitute for Praxis I

You may submit an official SAT report (or copy) or get your scores from the Registrar's Office and bring them to the College of Education.

ACT as a Substitute Test for Praxis I

- ACT taken October 28, 1989 to April 1, 1995 – a composite score of 21, with the ACT mathematics score no less than 21, and an ACT English Plus Reading score no less than 37. (Due to VDOE regulations, ACT taken before October 28, 1989 will not be accepted.)
- ACT taken After April 1, 1995 – a composite score of 24, with the ACT mathematics score no less than 22, and an ACT English Plus Reading score no less than 46

You may submit an official ACT report (or copy) or get your scores from the Registrar's Office and bring them to the College of Education.

VCLA plus Math as a Substitute Test for Praxis I

- A composite VCLA score of 470 (reading and writing) may be substituted for Praxis I reading and writing exams.
- Math proficiency must be demonstrated by one of the following:
 - Praxis I math score greater than or equal to 178
 - SAT math score greater than or equal to 510 (prior to April 1, 1995)
 - SAT math score greater than or equal to 530 (after April 1, 1995)
 - ACT math score greater than or equal to 21 (prior to April 1, 1995)
 - ACT math score greater than or equal to 22 (after April 1, 1995)

You MUST bring the original (preferable) or a copy of your official VCLA score report to the College of Education

Licensure Testing Requirements

Virginia Communication and Literacy Assessment

The Virginia Communication and Literacy Assessment (VCLA) must be passed prior to student teaching for all initial teacher licensure programs. The passing score required is 470 (a minimum score of 235 in each Reading and Writing section).

You MUST bring the original (preferable) or a copy of your official VCLA score report to the College of Education.

Reading for Virginia Educators (RVE)

- Effective July 1, 2011, the new reading assessments for the Commonwealth of Virginia is:
 - Reading for Virginia Educators: Elementary and Special Education – the RVE must be passed prior to student teaching for individuals seeking licensure in Elementary Education P-6. The passing score requirement is 157.

Child Abuse Recognition and Intervention Training

- Individuals seeking an initial license must complete training in child abuse recognition and intervention training.

Virginia State and Local Civic Education Module

- Candidates in the elementary education and middle grades pathways to licensure must complete the Civics Education requirement for licensure. There is no charge for completing the module.
- Beginning fall 2012, the requirement will be met by completing an online module.

Praxis II

Praxis II subject area tests must be passed prior to student teaching.

Websites:

Praxis: www.ets.org/praxis

Virginia Communication and Literacy Assessment (VCLA): www.va.nesinc.com

Reading for Virginia Educators (RVE): www.ets.org/praxis/va/

Child Abuse Recognition and Intervention Training:
http://www.vcu.edu/vissta/training/va_teachers/

Virginia State and Local Civic Education Module: <http://www.civiceducationva.org/>