THE HONOR SYSTEM: A WAY OF LIFE AT UMW

The Honor System is fundamentally a code of personal integrity. It means that students of the University of Mary Washington accept the challenge to make their word of honor a pledge of absolute truthfulness in all matters that fall within the Honor Code. It is a commitment to a way of life characterized by loyalty to the highest ideals of individual and collective ethical responsibility. — Dr. Edward Alvey, Dean Emeritus

STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

The University of Mary Washington subscribes to the principles of equal opportunity and affirmative action. The University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, disability, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, sexual orientation, sex, or age in recruiting, admitting, and enrolling students or in hiring faculty and staff members. The University will not recognize or condone student, faculty, or staff organizations that discriminate in selecting members. Complaints of discrimination or questions should be directed to the AA/EEO Officer of the University.

COMMUNITY VALUES

Several elements contribute significantly to the fulfillment of the University's mission. One is the encouragement of, and respect for, individual and cultural diversity. The University also insists upon an atmosphere of civility and tolerance consistent with the ideals of a community of scholars. Toward that end, the University embraces a statement of community values and expectations concerning the behavior of its members. This statement declares that:

The University of Mary Washington is an academic community dedicated to the highest standards of scholarship, personal integrity, responsible conduct, and respect for the individual. We hold among our foremost common values:

- The importance of personal integrity as reflected in adherence to the Honor Code,*
- The right of every individual to be treated with dignity and respect at all times,*
- The acceptance of and respect for diversity in our community and adherence to the University's Statement of Non-Discrimination, and*
- The freedom of intellectual inquiry in the pursuit of truth.*

As members of the University community, we refuse to tolerate behavior that in any way compromises or threatens these values.

UMW HONOR PLEDGE AND TERMS OF APPLICATION

I, as a student at the University of Mary Washington's College of Graduate and Professional Studies, do hereby accept the Honor System. I have read the information about the Honor System, understand it, and agree to abide by its provisions. Accordingly, I resolve to refrain from giving or receiving academic material in a manner not authorized by the instructor, from illegally appropriating the property of others, and from deliberately falsifying the facts. I acknowledge that, in support of the Honor System, it is my responsibility to report any violations of the Honor Code of which I am aware, and that it is my duty to participate as an honor trial juror if called upon to serve, unless officially excused. I realize that in the event of a violation of the Honor Code, a plea of ignorance will not be acceptable, and that such a violation could result in my permanent dismissal from the University. I further pledge that I shall endeavor at all times to create a spirit of honor, both by upholding the Honor System myself and helping others to do so.

I have read and understand the expectations outlined in the "Statement of Community Values and Behavioral Expectations" and the "Statement of Non-Discrimination."

I understand that this application is subject to all terms and conditions, financial and otherwise, set forth in the current catalog and to all officially announced changes. I agree to accept all terms and conditions, financial and otherwise, which are in effect during the entire period of enrollment.

I certify that the information given in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. My signature below indicates that I accept the obligations and conditions of the Honor System at the UMW College of Graduate and Professional Studies.

I acknowledge responsibility for all tuition and fees resulting from my acceptance of an offer of admission to the University of Mary Washington.
